

CARLYN M. CAREY
COMPLIANCE GENERALIST
THE COOPERATIVE BANK OF CAPE COD

Carlyn Carey recently joined The Cooperative Bank of Cape Cod, working in the area of regulatory compliance. Prior to that time, she maintained a private law practice representing nonprofit organizations and small business.

From 1997-2006, Carlyn lived in Washington, D.C. where she was an associate attorney at Bracewell & Giuliani LLP, serving large domestic and multinational companies and lending institutions in international transactions. She returned home to Cape Cod to give her family a better quality of life.

Carlyn holds a B.A. in Psychology from Ithaca College, a Master's degree in International Affairs from American University and a Juris Doctorate from American University's Washington College of Law. She is the author of "International Displacement: Is Prevention through Accountability Possible? A Kosovo Case Study" published in the American University Law Review, and the article "Unocal Corporation Can Be Liable for Human Rights Abuses in Burma" published in the Human Rights Brief. Carlyn is licensed to practice law in Massachusetts, New York, and Washington, DC.

Carlyn also serves as Co-Chair of the Dennis Port Revitalization Committee, a very active committee of the Town of Dennis broadly charged with revitalizing the village of Dennis Port. She lives in Dennis Port with her husband, Brian, and their daughter, Phebe. Carlyn is a 2008 graduate of Community Leadership Institute of Cape Cod and the Islands.
