

DAVID TUNNEY
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
GESTALT INTERNATIONAL STUDY CENTER

David was born in New York City and grew up in South Orange, NJ except for 3 years when his family moved to London, England. While living in New Jersey, David's family frequently took summer vacations on Cape Cod.

After earning his BA in Political Science from Guilford College in Greensboro, NC, David spent 6 years working for IBM in Manhattan. During this time, he earned an MA in Organizational Psychology at Teachers College, Columbia University. David moved to Los Angeles in 1990 where he started his career in management consulting and where he lived for 15 years. He moved to Cape Cod in 2005.

David joined the Gestalt International Study Center (GISC) as the Executive Director in June, 2010. Prior to this position, he worked primarily in the area of large-scale organizational change management in Fortune 100 and middle market companies representing various industries including health care, information technology, financial and professional services, entertainment, telecommunications, and energy & utilities.

In addition to 10 years experience with global consulting firms such as Price Waterhouse Coopers, IBM, and Infosys Consulting, David has worked internally, independently, and with boutique consulting firms. David enjoys living and working on Cape Cod, kayaking, yoga, bicycling, reading, movies, and good times with friends and family
