

MARIUS DEHELEAN
VICE PRESIDENT
TD BANK N.A.

Marius Dehelean was born and raised in Romania and immigrated to the U.S. in 2003. Marius received a Bachelors of Arts from Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca, Romania. Marius and his wife Anca established residency on the Cape shortly after their arrival in the U.S. They now reside in Mashpee and have three wonderful children. While working and starting a family in the U.S., Marius also started a Masters of Business Administration program at UMASS Dartmouth from which he graduated in 2010 cum laude.

Marius has worked in the banking sector since 2006 in various commercial lending capacities, most recently as a commercial loan officer at a vice president level for TD Bank in Hyannis. His aspirations include a leadership position in the local banking community, where his experience, education and dedication can contribute to the overall prosperity and improvement of his community and that of the organization that he serves.

Marius is an active donor and volunteer with Special Olympics of Massachusetts and Special Olympics of Romania, Habitat for Humanity and United Way (alongside TD Bank's generous ongoing support of this organization). He is also a Net Impact member, a social responsibility and environmental awareness association sponsored by UMASS Dartmouth's Charleton College of Business.
